Retreat & Cheers Trivia

Ever since we can remember, The Retreat has been compared to the very popular TV bar, Cheers. You might recall the favorite hangout & its colorful cast of characters. It was a place where "everybody knows your name" & where friendships & camaraderie were the focal point of each hilarious episode. The owners (Russ and Andrea Ainsworth) would like to welcome you to Greece's own neighborhood Cheers. Russ & Andrea have both worked at Kodak for over 20 years in Health Imaging. Russ is a musician and attended the Eastman School of Music. Russ has taught many area bands and drum corps and won a world championship with the Empire Statesmen. Andrea is a chemist and attended Oswego State and R.I.T. She has 2 boys, Cory and Taylor. Russ and Andrea are members of the premiere party band Deja-Who? Please feel free to come up and say "Hi". We will do our best to continue The Retreat's style and professionalism with the same great menu and the same great staff. Have fun with this trivia & then look for funny quotes from our favorite Cheers characters throughout our menu.
